DS 203

Mid-semester Test

September 20, 2024: 16:00 – 18:00

Marks: 30, Weightage: 30%

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Venues: LA-201 and LA-202. Seating arrangements have been uploaded to Moodle. You are required to note down your allotted venue and seat number before reaching the venue!
- Get your ID card to the venue.
- Get your computer to the venue. This is a 'non-paper' test. Submission requirements are outlined later.
- You are allowed to access your notes, slides, Moodle, Internet and other Internet based tools during the test. However, the following restrictions will strictly apply:
    - Tools such as MS Teams, Google Docs, WhatsApp, etc. SHOULD NOT be accessed during the test.
    - Use of any other online collaboration tool / other means of collaboration is also NOT ALLOWED at any time through the duration of the test.
    - Use of mobile phone is allowed, but ONLY for connecting to the internet, only if there are Wi-fi problems. No other application (including calculators) should be used on the mobile phone during the test.
- The test should be answered using coding + documentation environment like Jupyter Notebook. If you choose to use a 'coding only' environment, you will have to submit a separate document containing your analysis and report.
- File names of the Notebook / code / report files SHOULD have your roll number.
- The first cell of the Notebook SHOULD be a markup cell and it SHOULD list all the major decisions and steps you have taken to arrive at the solution(s). Subsequently, include markup cells containing your analysis as and when required.
- The code should flawlessly execute with your data file(s) kept in the same folder.
- Upload all created data files, Notebooks, source code files (if separately created), PDF of your report (if separately created) to the MidsemTest submission point on Moodle.
- MidsemTest will stop accepting submissions at 18:15 Hrs.
- MALPRACTICES / CHEATING: ANY MALPRACTICE OR VIOLATION OF ABOVE STATED RESTRICTIONS OR ANY CHEATING WILL RESULT IN THE SEVEREST POSSIBLE DISCIPLINARY ACTION – WHETHER DETECTED DURING THE TEST OR LATER / DURING EVALUATION.

Under no circumstances will submissions be accepted after 18:15 Hrs.

In case of any queries, post to the Moodle Forum 'Queries and Discussions'
